Our first aim is to resolve all complaints. However, if your complaint relates to a purchase on finance and if you are not satisfied after receiving our final response or on how we are progressing your complaint at any point you have the right to escalate to the Lender who will investigate your complaint and provide a Final Response Letter within eight weeks from your registering your complaint with the lender.

If you are not satisfied with the Lender's Final Response or if eight weeks have passed and you have not received a Final Response you have the right to refer to your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS). Their contact details are as follows.

The Financial Ombudsman Service

If 8 weeks have passed since you initially raised your complaint with us and the Lender or you're not happy with the Lender's final response, you may refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

The Financial Ombudsman Service was set up by law to give most consumers a free, independent service for resolving disputes with financial firms.

Please note that if you've got a complaint, you should always contact us and, or the Lender first. The Ombudsman will only consider your case once you've attempted to resolve it directly with us and the Lender first.

You've got a period of 6 months to refer your complaint to the Ombudsman. This starts from the date of the final response letter that the Lender sends to you.

Here are the contact details of the Financial Ombudsman Service:
